TEARING EXPLOSION.

An explosion of blasting materials in the Wilhelm. Gluck Salt Mine at Schwabisch Hall; Wurtenburg, killed twelve miners and finned eight, of whom only two are expected to recover. The disaster was increased by the miners, in a punic, eideavoring to open the door outward instead of inward, time preventing aid from reaching them before they had fallen unconscious from the flames.

PIPLATES.

Halifax, Dec. 16.—Capt. Swimm, of the schooner Laura Brues, reports that when near a supposed uninhabited island off Alemanana, West Indies, a small vessel, whomer risged, was seen at the only place of anchorage at the island. The Laura Brues people backed to get out of her way, but the stranger seemed desirous of being drawn, on, and vollowed in every direction. At first the stranger was only carrying a tender jib and foresail but as the Laura Brues showed a desire to get away, her nain sail was also hoisted and it became evident that the stranger mean to overhaul them if possiger meant to overhall them if possi-ble but after chase of fifty miles the pintle-looking craft threw away and more was seen of her. A LIBRIED EDITOR.

Rochester, N. Y., Dec. 16.—The answer of Bishop McQuaid, Catholic, of Rachester, in the libel suit of Frederick K. Danner, cditor of the Soming Blattzered, was made yesterday. The suit was brought in August, claiming $10,000 damages because of the pastoral letter of the bishop read in the churches forbidding Catholics to read that paper on the ground that the editor defined Fathers Sinclair and Fascalar of this city. The answer repeats that the editor's charges are false, and denies any improper motive in the pastoral letters.

COMMENTS ON COGNAC.

COMMENTS ON COGNAC.

New York, Dec. 15.—A letter from Frunce says: Now that the vintage senson is over, there is no longer room for doubting what had before been all but a certainty, that the year's brandy crop amounts to nothing; in short, thut in Cognac annals 1870 may be registrated as no name parduc. Agesvere frost came at the last moment and snapped up what few grapes had managed to survive the phylloxera and rains. The letter reports that the statement false which originally appeared in a Cognac newspaper that enormous quantities of spurious brandy known as "Trois Sex," a dissillation from grain, beet root, potatoes brandy known as "Trois Sex," a distillation from grain, beet root, potatoes and other substances, arriving there from Germany, were put into the brandy casks, which had been sent back empty from Loadon and then shipped to foreign countries, notably to England and Spain, as pure cognac brandy. The correspondent in a comforting voin adds: "There is plenty of good brandy set on hand; even the seven years of Egyptian famine would not suffice to exhaust the stock laid up in the enormous vaults of the great louses liming the Charentes."

Interesting Slander Suit from Steuben County.

A $5,000 Case from Happy Huntertown.

Margaret Scheidler, of Steuben county is on her auricular appendage so to speak, meaning her car. The occusion of all this grief is that on the 17th of last June accertain man whose name appears on the complaint as Jucob H. Van Auken, did without emise call Margaret a succession of names which did not accord with her idea of the fitness of things. Jucob, she avers, called her a vile egithet which was calculated to inspire the hearer with the idea that Hargaret was a monan whose virtue was lung on a bingo or a pivot or something like a "Humpity Dumpty" arrangement, which wild instanation damaged Margaret's character justabout $2,000 worth. The suit is therefore for sland or and brough there from Steuben chunty on a clumpe of venue. to speak, meaning her car. The oc-TROTHER.

ben ctulity on a change of venue.

ANOTHER.

James Stirlen, living several miles east of Huntertown, wants damages. He files a complaint in which he says he was tamaged—but he wants more damages. He wants an even $5,000, and wheap the trouble is he wants his neighbor. Cornelius Schneider, to pay this $5,600. The trouble appears to be that Schneider told somebody that James had vold clover seed to Jack Rawlston and that before he sold it he put sand into it, and then sold the sand at the sane rate that he sold the sand at the sane rate that he sold the clover seed at.

If that was the case, and it should be adopted as the regumer market price for sand, the massaic temple could not be completed hefore the 18th of January.

James claims that this sesertion of Schneider's was calculated to injure his character to the amount of $6,000, and in view of that contingency he eaks the court, be fur that amount to Alleged Bruial Pawishment of a Pupil in the Public Schools.

James Politier this afternoun wont up to the high school to interview Supt. Irwin on the question of corporal paquishment. He was accompanied by his little eight-year old son, who was the victim of alleged mal-treatment at the hands of the principal of the Clay street school. Mr. Pelier informed a SENTINEL reporter that his son's back was dissolored from the severe punishment which he received, while his head had several prominent bumps not found on phremological charts, caused by the principal humping the little fellow's head against the wall of the cethar. He says he gave the teachers permission to whip his boy when he deserved it,but not to maltreat him. He said he would show the hruises on the boys back and head to Supt. Irwin, and if he took no nation he (Mr. Peltier) would push the matter to the end. Supt. Irwin will undoubtedly see that justice is done. Alleged Brutal Panishment of a Pupil in the Public Schools.

A Joke on Byron.

Telegraph operators in the audience at the Academy last night, were considerably amused at the expense of the actor Oliver Doud Byron in his "great telegraph scene" at station 47, on the Union Pacific Railroad. Mr. Byron, telegraph operator at the station for aid, pounding the eternal everlusting electricity out of the instrument at his end of the line, not exactly according to the Morse method and quite unitelligible to the many operators in the audience. The reply was to be manipulated by a "super" behind the scenes in the same manner. The reply came back in pureat Morse, "Say, Byron, old boy, you may be the mobiest Roman of em. all, but you're a h. — to fan operator." Mr. Byron could not imagine the cause of the langiter in this the most serious part of the play. O. L. Perry had taken the "supers" place at the other end of the line.

Interesting Slander Suit from Steuben County.

A $5,000 Case from Happy Huntertown.

Margaret Scheidler, of Steuben county is on her auricular appendage se to speak, meaning her car. The ocession of all this grief is that on the 17th of last June a certain man whose name appears on the complaint as tion, telegraphs to the next station Jacob H. Van Auken, did without cause for aid, pounding the eternal everlastcall Margaret a succession of names which did not accord with her idea of at his end of the line, not exactly acthe fitness of things. Jacob, she avers, called her a vile epithet which was calculated to inspire the hearer with the idea that Margaret was a waman whose virtue was hung on a hinge or a pivot or something like a "Humpty Dumpty" arrangement, which wild insinuation damaged ben county on a change of venue.

James Stirlen, living several miles east of Huntertown, wants damages. He files a complaint in which he says he was clamaged-but he wants more damages. He wants an even $5,000. and where the trouble is he wants his neighbor, Cornelius Schneider, to pay this $5,600. The trouble appears to be that Schneider told somebody that marshal; and Homer C. Hartman, James had vold clover seed to Jack Rawlston and that before he sold it he put sand in to it, and then sold the sand at the same rate that he sold the clover seed at. If that was the case, and it should be adopted as the reguer market price for sand, the masonic temple could not be completed before the 18th of January.

James claims that this assertion of James claims that this assertion of Schneider's was calculated to injure injunction, restraining order granted. Messrs. Coombs, Bell and Taylor his character to the amount of $5,000, and in view of that contingency he asks the court to tax that amount to the author of all this calamity.

The complaint covers ten mages of legal cap.

The telegraph to-day announces the death at Richmond of Wm. H. Goode, D. D., of paralysis. The deceased was well and favorably known in this city and throughout northern Indiana. He has long been connected with the Methodist conference of this district, and his loss will be widely and deeply regretted.

The funeral of the late R. W. Tayor took place at 2 p. m.to-day from his former residence on West Wayne street, now occupied by Judge Brackenridge. The attendance was quite large, comprising most of the old setders. The Rev. McFarland conducted the services. The interment was at Lindenwood Cemetery. The following gentlemen acted as pall bear-ers: Hons. J. L. Williams and J. K. Edgerton, and Messrs. O. P. Morgan, John M. Miller, Geo. H. Wilson and A. M. Orbison.

Councilman Muhler, chairman of the finance committee, called a meeting of the finance, judiciary and assessment and taxes committees for instantly killing Engineer William last night, to take some action respecting the recovery of the property donated by the city to the Jackson & Saginaw road. The meeting was called to meet at the water works trus-tees' office, but by some misunderstanding, Capt. Hettler and several others went to the city hall, while the balance of the committees and the trustees were waiting for them at the trustees' office. Both meetings after waiting a considerable length of time, adjourned sine die, without transacting any business.

Alleged Brutal Punishment of a

Pupil in the Public Schools. James Peltier this afternoon went up to the high school to interview Supt. Irwin on the question of corporal punishment. He was accompanied by his little eight-year old son, who was the victim of alleged mal-treatment at the hands of the principal of the Clay street school. Mr. Peltier informed a Stanzana contact the hands of the principal of the Clay street school. formed a SENTINEL reporter that his son's back was discolored from the severe punishment which he received, while his head had several prominent bumps not found on phrenological charts, caused by the principal bumping the little fellow's head against the wall of the cellar. He says he his boy when he deserved it, but not to maltreat him. He said he would show the bruises on the boys back and head to Supt. Irwin, and if he took no action he (Mr. Peltier) would push the matter to the end. Supt. Irwin will undoubtedly see that justice is done.

THE republican newspapers which have been yelling fraud at the democratic state officers of Maine are considerably set back by the decision of Judge VIRGIN, of the supreme court of that state, a stalwart republican, who holds that he has no power to issue a mandamus to compel the secretary of state to do differently from what he has been doing in pursuance of the law. In a word, Judge Virgin fully sustains Gov. GARCELON and his asso-

THERE is little or no doubt that CLARKSON N. POTTER was legally elected licutenant governor of New The canvassing board was composed of democrats, who if they examined into the returns "judicially" (alias the returning board) might have certified Mr. Por-TER's election. What they did do is shown by the following extract from the New York World:

The state can vassers refuse to adopt the republican theory of their duties--or per-haps, after all, it is the republican theory that they adopt. The republican theor, notil some new exigency shall cause it to be revised, we believe to be that the funtions of republican canvassers are judicia and that the functions of democratic can ers are ministerial. Republican can vassers, fliat is, may go behind the returns if they do not like the looks of the face of the returns. The evidence collected by the democratic state committee judicate that Mr. Power would be declared lieuter ant governor if the votes plainty meant for him, but thrown out for alleged imper-fections by regulifican local canvassers, fections by republican local canvassers, were counted. The democratic state canvassers hold, or course rightly, that they cannot correct this alleged infustice, but the courts may take a different view if the question is brought before them.

The democratic way of doing these things is entirely different from the republican way. The latter is to take all you can get, and hold on to all that you have, regardless of law, justice and the wishe of the people.

THE PLOT TO STEAL NEW YORK. The Rochester Union and Advertiser is one of the leading democratic journals of New York state. Its editor Mr. PURCELL, is chairman of the dem ocratic state central committee and understands the politics of New York as well as any man in it. The Union and Advertiser has the following to say concerning the threatened plot to steal the thirty-five electoral votes of New York for the republican candi-

There is no doubt that constitution leaves the power to appointment by the state is wholly in the hands of the legislature. But there is no danger that the republicar leaders will attempt to carry out the proposed scheme. They have the disposition but lack the courage. They dare not do it. What a commentary upon the "this is a nation" theory of the republicans would be the attempt by a re-publican legislature to steal the electoral vote of New York by a servising the most. vote of New York by exercising the electron, should be power of state sovereignty and using it to overturn established using take from the people their long enjoyed privilege of choosing electors, and defeat what the very proposition in question concedes to be the will of the majority at the bullot box—that the thirty-five votes of New York shall be given for the damoratic nominees for president and vice-resident! THE SUPREME COURT.

The New York Sun calls attention to the fact that one of the most important political results of the next presidency will be the entire reorganisation of the supreme court of the United States. It is well nigh certain that the next president will have the appointment of five judges or an abso lute mejority of that tribunal. The court is now composed as follows:

Justices Waite, Swayner Miller Strong, Eradley, Herr and Harlan Justices CLIFFORD and FIFLD, democrate

It is claimed that this 21bs. 15c. 131bs. 20c. 41bs. 25c. was done on the technicality and informality of the returns. The senate, under the count, will have a denoratic majority of nine, there being, under the count, twenty democratic senators and eleven republicans. The governor and the council count out three senators from Cumberland, one each from York, Lincoin and Washington, and two from Androscoggin. The democrats will have a yasnington, and two from Andreas coggin. The democrats will have a majority large enough in the house to give a quorum if none of the republi-cans should appear and take their seats. They have thrown out republican representatives from l'ortlan Saco, Rockland, Linton and other towns, enough to make vacancies in towns, enough to make vacancies in fourteen representative districts.

Another dispatch says the council have not completed the canvass. A few districts remain unsettled. It is expected that the result will be reached by Wednesday. Democrats, as well as republicans, lave been thrown out. It is thought the house will be seventhrowner, business and sixty-two rety-seven fusionists and sixty-two re publicans, with twelve vacancies; the senate, nineteen fusionists and twelve republicans.

THE republican newspapers which have been yelling fraud at the demo- time and place of holding their state cratic state officers of Maine are consid erably set back by the decision of Judge VIRGIN, of the supreme court of that state, a stalwart republican, who holds that he has no power to issue a man damus to compel the secretary of state to do differently from what he has been doing in pursuance of the law. In a word, Judge VIRGIN fully sustains Gov. GARCELON and his asso-lectoral votes.

THERE is little or no doubt that CLARKSON N. POTTER was legally elected lieutenant governor of New York. The canvassing board was composed of democrats, who if they had examined into the returns "judicially" (alias the returning board) might have certified Mr. Por-TER's election. What they did do is shown by the following extract from the New York World:

The state canvassers refuse to adopt the republican theory of their duties-or perhaps, after all, it is the republican theory that they adopt. The republican theory until some new exigency shall cause it to be revised, we believe to be that the functions of republican canvassers are judicial and that the functions of democratic canvassers are ministerial, Republican can vassers, that is, may go behind the returns if they do not like the looks of the face of the returns. The evidence collected by the democratic state committee Indicates that Mr. POTTER would be declared lieutenant governor if the votes plainly meant for him, but thrown out for alleged imperfections by republican local canvassers, were counted. The democratic state can vassers hold, of course rightly, that they cannot correct this alleged injustice, but the courts may take a different view if the question is brought before them. The democratic way of doing these things is entirely different from the republican way. The latter is to take all you can get and hold on to all that you have, regardless of law, justice and the wishes of the people.

THE PLOT TO STEAL NEW YORK. The Rochester Union and Advertiser is one of the leading democratic journals of New York state. Its editor. Mr. PURCELL, is chairman of the democratic state central committee and understands the politics of New York as well as any man in it. The Union and Advertiser has the following to say concerning the threatened plot to steal the thirty-five electoral votes of New York for the republican candidate next year:

president and vice president in the state of New York shall be set aside by life in coming legislature, and their appointment be made directly by that body. Some of them openly advocate it, while others, like the Rochester Democrat, with its characteristic timidity and Jack Bunsbyism, so treat it that their positions are not to be defined by what they say. There is no doubt that constitution leaves the power to appointment by the state is wholly in the hands of the legislature. But there is no danger that the republican leaders will attempt to carry out the proposed scheme. They have the disposition but lack the courage. They dare not do it. What a commentary upon the "this is a nation" theory of the republicans would be the attempt by a republican legislature to steal the electoral vote of New York by exercising the most absolute power of state sovereignty and using it to overturn established usage take from the people their long enjoyed privilege of choosing electors, and deteat what the very proposition in question concedes to be the will of the majority at the ballot box-that the thirty-five votes of New York shall be given for the democratic nominees for president and vicepresident! For any legislature to do this but more especially a legislature like that of 1880 which represents only a minority of the people and holds its republican majority by virtue of a gerrymandering apportionment that it would be base flat tery to call infamous, and to do it without the question having ever been brought before or considered by the people, would be to inaugurate revolution. We repeat, the republican leaders dare not do it.

THE SUPREME COURT.

The New York Sun calls attention to the fact that one of the most im portant political results of the next presidency will be the entire reorganization of the supreme court of the United States. It is well nigh certain that the next president will have the appointment of five judges or an absolute majority of that tribunal. The court is now composed as follows:

Justices Waite, Swayne, Miller, Strong, Bradley, Her and Harlan, republicans-7.

Justices CLIFFORD and FIELD, democrats

The Sun says: CLIFFORD is 76 years of age, and .is fast declining. SWAYNE is 75, and though hale for that time of life, cannot expect in the nature of things to hold out much longer. STRONG is turned of 70, and is daily growing feeble. BRADLEY is 68, and is ready to retire voluntarily when he may get the pension. Hunt is hopelessly broken, in ealth by paralysis.

This makes it plain that the court will be re-organized very soon after the advent to power of the next administration, and that the complexion thus given it will adhere to it for an indefinite period of time.

STATE POLITICS.

The Elkhart Democrot says: The Fort Wayne SENTINEL says Landers, for governor, is not the choice of Allen county by a large majority. The same can be said of Elkhart county.

The Columbia City Post seems to have abandoned Hendricks and taken up Seymour, for whom it booms regularly.

The Warren News contains the following startling information: The Fort Wayne SENTINEL favors Joe McDonald, "the wild man of Columbia City," for governor.

The Warsaw Indianian booms in every issue for Billy Williams for governor. The Kendallville Standard wants him to run for congress again.

The following is from the Ligonier Banner:

Ex-Gov. James E. English, of Connecti cut, is another distinguished democrat apon whom all the opponents of Grant-ism could unite and whose nomination would be equivalent to an election.

The Ligonier Banner says:

The idea that Joel Parker is the man with whom the democrats can sweep the country is steadily gaining adherents. No valid objection can be urged against his nomination. He can unite the party more thoroughly than any man yet mentioned in connection with the presidency.

The Ligonier Banner says: If any other Indiana democrat besides Mr. Hendricks is to be placed upon the national ticket, let the selection fall upon Judge Holman, who stands next to Mr. Hendricks in point of popularity. Purker and Holman would constitute an invinci-

The Columbia City Post thus solves the problem:

The Fort Wayne SENTINEL'S presidential slate maker thinks Seymour and tial state maker thinks Seymour and Hendricks won't do, as Seymour declines and Hendricks will not take second place, In politics, as in war, there is such a thing as drafting men into the service. Do you understand?

The Evansville Courier says: The democratic state central commit-tee have opened out at Masonic Temple in Indianspoles, and will at once proceed to organize the party for the contest of 1889. Mr. William Fleming is chairman of the executive committee, and that means the discipline and system which always precede victory.

always precede victory. The New Albany Ledger-Standard savs:

Hon. S. Jones Tilden, at present, is very reticent and quiet. He is not doing a thing publicly, but attends to his own business. And yet, it seems that he is worrying the very life out of radical and doubtful democratic papers and politicians. Tilden can go to sleep and wake up in Nomember 1880, and find that the voters of this country elected him president the second time.

EDUCATIONAL.

STATE MATTERS. The state superintendent of public instruction is preparing, at the request of the codification commission, a codification of the school laws. The state superintendent of schools thinks the smoking or using of tobac-co by a teacher in and about the school room is sufficient cause for a revocation of license.

It is not more information that makes a man great, but that ability to use information which is called wisdom. When some one told Rivaroi that he had mastered four languages, the wit replied, "Then, sir, you will in future have four words for one idea."

A complete digest of the opinions and decisions issued from the office of the state superintendent of public instruction, and of supreme court opinions touching the school laws, will shortly be issued in pamphiet form for the convenience of teachers and school trustees.

The state superintendent of public instruction states that during the year, ending September 1st, 503,892 pupils were in the schools of this state, and the amount of money expended during the year was $3,002, 517. Besides the public schools, 635 private schools are reported in the state.

The board of managers of Purdue University having decided against the formation or existence of secret societies among the students; a pledge is exacted on entering that the stu dent will not join any such societies; nevertheless, it seems the secret societies do exist at Purdne, although without any fault, perhaps, of the president or faculty-scholastic. No faculty can drive out such societies.

A lady correspondent sends us a specimen of her penmanship and composition and asks if in our opinion, she would be a success as a writer for daily newspapers. The question in regard to our ideas of journalism as a profession, especially a profession for young ladies, is a somewhat difficult one to answer. It has been neatly ut that to be : make up your mind to these half dozen trifles. - You must be ready 1. To write at a moment's notice.

To write sick or well.
 To write day or night.

4. To submit to mortifications. 5. To be brought in contact with disreputable persons and men of no principle. 6. After a year's trial you will not unlikely get thoroughly disgusted and have a disrelish for literature. The public schools of Iowa are said to be constantly improving, one great drawback being the tendency to divide and subdivide the district, until many of the schools are so small that they lack the interest and have not the financial ability to pay living salaries. The state superintendent thinks a greater permancy of the country teachers in the vocation and in the district is absolutely necessary for improvement. There is a great lack of uniformity in the country schools. During the past year 7,573 male teachers were employed and 18, 579 female teachers. The average monthly salary of the former was $32 71; of the latter, $26 40. The enrollment in the school was 431,317, the average attendance 264,700. The school population of the state num-

The buildings were beautifully decorated. Upon arriving at the ex-

"Governor-I thank you for your cordial welcome, and through you the mayor and people of Harrisburg and of Pennsylvania, for my reception today at the capital of your state. Since I left Philadelphia for my journey abroad, and since I landed at San Francisco to travel across the continent of North America, I have received no more cordial welcome than that given me by the people of Har-risburg. My road was full of honor, which I attribute to the reputation of my country and the grandure of its institutions, not to any deservings of my own. I again thank you, governor, for your welcome."

PHILADELPHIA'S PARTY. A committee of the city council of Philadelphia waited on Gen. Frant at the executive mansion, and Geo. S. Graham, on behalf of the city of Philadelphia, read an address of welcome with the formal invitation to the general to visit Philadelphia, and so complete his circuit of the world.

A PRESENT FOR "HIS NOBS." There will be presented Gen. Grant at Philadelphia to-day a table of solid gold, a fac simile of the old-fashioned mahogany centre table on which Gen. Grant and Gen. Lee signed the terms of the surrender of the confederate army at Appomattox court house. For the marble top slab, however, a plate of glass is substituted, beneath which, carved from gold in the highthe upper rim is engraved "Presented to Gen. U. S. Grant, Dec. 16, A. D. 1879, by Frank T. Weldon, ex-confederaie," while around the edge of the table is "Welcome home. s imparted to the kidneys and bladder by Hostetter's Bitters which is most useful in overcoming torpldity of those organs. Besides infusing more activity into them, this excellent tonic endows them with additional vigor and enables them the better to undergo the wear and tear of the discharging function imposed upon the discharging function imposed upon them by nature. Moreover, as they are the channel for the escape of certain impurities from the blood, it increases their usefulness by strengthening and healthfully stimulating them. In certain morbid conditions of these important organs, they fall into a sluggish state, which is the usual precursor of disease. What then can be of greater service than a medicine which impels them to greater activity when slothful? No mahadies are more perilous than those which affect the kidneys; and a medicine which averts the peril should be highly esteemed.

MRS. PARNELL. The Mother of the Famous Irish Agitator Has Her Say. [New York Star.]

I myself was born in Boston."
"What is your opinion of the threats of violence that have been uttered?" "Threats are exceptional, and only emanate from a few people. I think the Irish people will follow the advice of their leaders and abstain from violence.'

"The question of home rule, which has become one of the issues in the present agitation, will that, do you believe, be granted?"

"It may in course of time, by urging it on the government" "Your son expects to visit this country and lay the matter before the American people?" "That was his intention, but during the present troubles he will probably remain in Ireland. His whole course has been dictated by his feelings for the suffering people. He is no demagogue, and has sacrificed all for the people."

"Has Mr. Parnell any estate in Ire-

"Charles has several estates in Ireland, one of them in county Wicklow being the show-place of the neighborhood. This was left to our family by one of the descendants of the Irish princes who formerly owned it. He has reduced his rents 50 percent. My son, John Howard, has reduced his rents 50 and 60 percent. He resides in Alabama, where he is en-gaged in growing fruit. My younger son, Henry Tudor, has been unable to get any rents from his tenants. He is a barrister in Dublia, but is at present travelling on the continent. He has estates in Armagh, on which he has to pay a head tax to Trinity college in Dublin, while he is himself receiving no income from them, the tenants having refused to pay any rent."

"You have heard of the fears of famine in Ireland?" "Yes. The hay is all spoiled. The est style of jewelry, are various patrious crop, I understand, has also been otic and symbolic devices. The landlords are generally kind and treat their tenantry fairly. A portion of the land is owned by Englishmen who do not live in Ireland. Lord Derby and Lord Fitzwilliam are perhaps the largest land-holders there. Lord Fitzwilliam is a Liberal in politics, and he has already made large concessions to his tenants.

"I have read in some newspapers," continued Mrs. Parnell, "that there are fears of the Fenians becoming involved in these troubles. I think such fears are groundless, as the Fenians in this country care mainly to see Ireland and their friends and relatives prosperous.

Dispatches from Angusta, Me. assert that a count has been made by the governor and council of the election returns, which will result in the delivery of certificates to a sufficient number of democrats to give that party a majority in both branches of the legislature. There is great feeling among the republicans, owing to the condition of affairs.

The republican majority in both branches of the legislature has been counted out. The republican members have been counted down from 90 to 58, and the democrats counted up from 61 to 78. It is claimed that this was done on the technicality and informality of the returns. The senate, under the count, will have a democratic majority of nine, there being, under the count, twenty democratic senators and eleven republicans. The governor and the council count out three senators from Cumberland, one each from York, Lincoln and Washington, and two from Androscoggin. The democrats will have a majority large enough in the house to give a quorum if none of the republicans should appear and take their seats. They have thrown out republican representatives from Portland, Saco, Rockland, Linton and other towns, enough to make vacancies in fourteen representative districts. Another dispatch says the council have not completed the canvass. few districts remain unsettled. It is expected that the result will be reached by Wednesday. Democrats, as well as republicans, have been thrown out. It is thought the house will be seventy-seven fusionists and sixty-two republicans, with twelve vacancies; the senate, nineteen fusionists and twelve republicans. ENTIRELY RECOVERED.

HITCHED AT HADLEY.

t Honeymoon Broken Into by a Burglar, Who Sieals the Bride's Meart—General Gossip and News

petuted to-day in the SENTINEL newsroom:
Speaking of the disagreement of the jury in the Orrin Perry case, an unasophistented youth wanted to know why that case reminded one of a South American river. He was inmediately answered by another u.y., who said: "Bocause they thought it was a case of Orin no go" (Orinneu).
"Oh, no," said No. 1; "it was because they said Perry go way" (Paraguay). A third remorseless villain said the verdict was amiazing (Amazon), anyhow.
The "devil" now hung in his lip by saying that the jury didn't send him up because they thought the prison would be too chilly (Chili) for him, when "Sing 2" remarked that it was probably because the prison authortites did not furnish Madeira to the prisoners. The originator of the plot then rushed out to Peru-se over the affait, and is now in a critical condition. Notes.

[Correspondence of the SENTINEL.] [Correspondence of the Sentinel.]
Ossian, Ind., Dec. 5.—We are still in the land, and are trying to keep on top of the mud, but if t gets much worse I do not know what we will do. Our citizens have been trying to raise funds to build a walk from town down to the depot, and in looking over the names of those who are in favor of keeping our town in repair, I find but one man's name on the paper who owns property on the street on which the walk runs. No wonder they can get the liberal citizens to build their walks for them, and clean up their dirty alleys for them free of charge.

The carrying of the mall is settled at last. Mr. Hood received his commission some time ago from Fort Wayne, but when he presented himself to be qualified the notary public told him his commission was spurious and he would have to stand aside, but after waiting some time longer there came an order for one Mr. Share to step up and take the mail, he being the lowest bidder; and you never saw a prouder man in your life. He has ordered a plug hat and kid gloves.

Our concert at the Presbyterian Church was a success after all. It was composed of a surplus of the Garrells and somebody else.

There has been quite a lively competition amongst hog-buyers in which Williams and McDale were the principle participants. Williams can hold 'em level.

The Zanesville Cornet Band visited James Kelsey and family living a few miles from town, a few evenings ago, and report having had a good time. It was expected that James's son, who lives a good distance off, and his newly wedded wife would be present, but they were not. "Bright crimson locks adorn his head, Whose face is cheerful, whose hose is red," wants to be clerk of Wells county. Now if Wells county wants him!
Such hot coals of condemnation have been heaped upon the reavenger that we are moved to make a point for him if possible, at the peril of trespassing on the good nature of both editor and reader. We don't propose to enlarge on the fact that the hog drowned "evil spirits" in the sea; that by right of descent he occupies the aristocratic place in markets and slaughter houses; and that Barnum gave the "grunter" a chance, and developed him into "The Educated Hog," etc., etc. The case in print is about an Esculapian hog belonging to Jonathan Michaels, which performed a wonderful operation on a blooded coit, afflicted with a disease of the foot called "ring bone." Jonathan is a dealer in live stock, and in this respect is called the Sol. Meredith of Zanesville. Jonathan exhausted dozens of apothecary shops on the colt, but the "ring bone" got bigger." The other night the hog took the coit in hand and went regularly to business. It must have put in the entire night. It ate off the bandages, pulled and ate away at the "ring bone" until the foot was left dangling by the merest shreds. Jonathan pronounces the "ring bone" completely cured, but thinks the hog sacrificed too much foot. Skeptical people intimate that the hog meant to appropriate the colt, and that it was not a "professional" business at all. This latter view is certainly an unjust reflection upon a most noble animal. A.

HITCHED AT HADLEY. A Honeymoon Broken Into by

Burglar, Who Steals the Bride's Notes. [Correspondence of the SENTINEL.]

Hadley, Dec. 13.—Not many months ago, near our little village, two fond young moon arose fair and lovely, but now it is setting dark and storney. setting dark and stormy.
This sturdy young farmer wooed and won the girl of his heart. "though adverse gales blew swift and strong." He did not court her in the kitchen, dining room or parlor, as no most of our young Americans do; but like the dusky warrior of yore, in the friendly moonlight, and in the shadows of some neighboring oaks, pouring the contents of his heart into her willing ears while her pa and ma were fast asleep. At length the wedding day was set, the fatted calf was killed, and all received an invitation except her pa and ma. On that At length the wedding day was set, the fatted calf was killed, and all received an invitation except her pa and ma. On that fatal wedding day, however, a former lover of the bride for the first time discovered how dear to his heart and how necessary to his happiness was this fair creature, and at once began his suit by passing notes to her, and matters went from bad to worse until he confused her childish mind, and ere one-half of the honeymoon was over clouds began to gather on the horizon, which gradually grew black and blacker until at last she told her brokenhearted husband that she loved him no more. What the consequence will be time must tell. The sympathy of the entire community is with the husband.

Mr. kird, of Aboite township, who was married last week, held a grand infair at his residence. Some few received invitations to stay at home, but the youngsters say its all correct for there is more to follow by and by.

George Neff, ex-bookkeeper of the Lingloss Company, of St. Louis, has been indicted for embezzling $5,000 from that company last summer.

Joseph and Mary Volkner were convicted Monday of administring poison to one Blair, with intent to kill. They were sent to the penitentiary for twelve years each.

W. W. Winton, president of the Second National Bank, his son, A. H. Winton, his brother-in-law, Thos. Irving, and Isaac Dean, were arrested at Scranton, Pa., Monday, charged with maliciously conspiring to de-fraud the bank of $13,500, on the oath of George I. Goodale, receiver.

In the forest between Newark and Irvington, N. J., officers Chas. Gloria and Frank J. Curler arrested Sam Harrison, a burly negro. He is charged with having perpetrated a gross outrage on the daughter of Mrs. Josephine Polle, a poor German woman residing in that vicinity. The victim who is only ten years of age, was playing in the upper room of a tenement house, with Bertha and Mamie Van Flue, aged sixteen and ten res pectively, when Harrison locked the door, gagged the little girl, and left her in a most shocking condition.

The last straw that breaks the back of your patience in the apothecary's shop, after the polite pharmacist has carefully put your three cents' worth of medicine into a ten-cent bottle, Bitters, writes to us: "I shall never wrapped it up in two cents' worth of travel in that climate without your paper, tied it with a cent's worth of travel in that climate without your Safe Pills and Safe Bitters as a part twine, and used up about $5 worth of your time, is to have him light a lamp and use up fifteen minutes more in sticking the parcel together with sealing wax. Then, having, in a half-hour, gradually goaded you to frenzy, he blandly says, "Only 40 cents, sir."

It happened when Oil City was a new oil town that at a political meeting one of the prominent members went out the side door for a few moments just as the orator, referring to the death of a noted citizen, said: "Thus another great man is gone. Where, oh! where shall we find one who shall fill his place?" Supposing the speaker had reference to the citizen who had just stepped out, a man on the back seat said: "Oh! don't worry; he's just gone for a drink."

It will take fifteen days to pay off on both divisions of the Wabash,

The suit of Baker vs. the Wabash Road, at Lafayette, terminated on Saturday, in a verdict for the defend-ant.

There is no doubt but the machine shaps for the L. E. & W. R. R., will be moved from Lafnyette to Muncic. At least prominent railroad officials

B. F. Mastin and others have m a proposition to the owners of the agricultural works at Lafayette, to buy them on the same terms as Kerr Murray, of this city, offered. If the proposition is accepted they will turn the works into a car factory, and put it in operation in ten days after the perfected.

AMUSEMENTS.

Fort Wayne, in his popular play "Our next President," His reputation as a comedian is so fully established, that but to autounce John Dillou is a sufficient guarantee for a crowdded house. The St. Paul, (Minn.) Dispatch, of Oct. 15th, says:

"A very large and fashionable audience filled the opers house last night to witness the representation of John Dillou and the Blaisdell combination in the new play, "Our Next President." We believe him to be the most inmitable low comedian now performing upon any stage. His power to provoke laughter under any and all circumstances and upon the smallest basis, is simply unapproachable. While circumstances and upon the smallest basis, is simply unapproachable. While his capacity for portrature, his power to exhibit farce and comedy in infinite variety is masterful: his very mannerisms and his greatest caricatures equally compet the attention and excite the risibles of his audiences. In his role of humorist last last Mr. Dillon simply added another to his repeated triumphs. It was impossible for him to appear upon the stage, even before uttering a word, without exciting convulsive and delighted applause."

AN AUTOPSY.

Held This Morning Upon the Rody of the Late R. W. Taylor.

From 9 to 11.30 this morning autopsy washeld upon the body of the late R. W. Taylor at the residence of Judge Jos. Brackenridge. It was conducted by Prof. Gobrecht, assisted by ducted by Prof. Gobrecht, assisted by Profs. Gregg and Stemen, of the Fort Wayne College of Medicine, and witnessed by the students of that college. The brain was demonstrated by Prof. Gobrecht and ample evilence was found for the dementia and other symptoms which were present during life. Among other pathological conditions present there was found a bony tumor growing from the internal table of the skull into the brain mass. The brain was very much softened. The demonstration of the brain was remarkably fine, as was to be expected from the well known scientific attainments and skill of Prof. Gobrecht. of Prof. Gobrecht.

THE "HOME."

unother Version of the Case Men-tioned in Testerday's "Sentinel," This afternoon Mayor Zollinger and Chief Smith went to the Home for the Friendless to investigate the case of the woman who, it was alleged, was turned away from the Home last week, as stated in last evening's SEN-TINEL.

The following letter from the matron explains itself:

To the Editor of the SENTINEL:

For the source of the SENTIFEL:

Fort Wayne, Dec. 16, 1876.—Sir:
You have certainly been misinformed regarding the woman sont here by Capt. Smith. I did all I could to make her comfortable that night and in the morning she said that she be-lieved she could travel and had much lieved she could travel and bad much; rather go to her friends than stay here. I intended to go to the trustee's office with her, but some persons came in on business that I was colliged to attend to and she would not wait until I was at liberty to go with her. When I saw she was determined to go, I gave her money and showed her the street car that would take her to town. I went up as soon as I could, and Mr. Langard told ne that she did not take the cur as directed, but walknot take the car as directed, but walk-ed down as far as West Wayne street and sat down on the sidewalk, and and sat down on the sidewalk, and could not be persuaded to go into the house. They notified him, and he took her to a house on Griffith street, where she remained until 2 a'clack, when le gave her a pass to Crestline, and sent a hack to take her to the depot. I was very sorry for the woman, and should have done the less I could for her, but could not force her to stay against her will. Our resources and roman elimited, but we intend to make the most of them. Our resourcesand regalare immed, but we intend to make the most of them, and it is seldom that may are turned as that we cannot care for them for any length of time, owing to the lack of the countries of the lack of the countries of the second o room and other conveniences. I am pained that there should have been such a misunderstanding, but do not feel that I could have done differently in the matter. Yours respectfully, Mas. M. A. Carrier, Matron of "Home."

(Correspondence of the SENTENL.)
Warsaw, Dec. 15. — There baing sothing of any importance occutring since my last letter, I have been laying low for an item or two, but it seems as though the longer you wait the less you find out.

The marriage of the only daughter of Mr. Levi Zumbum, of this city, to Louis Sheets, of Fort Wayne, took place on last Thurslay evening at the residence of the hride's father. Mr. and Mrs. Shoets will take up their residence in the Summit City.

A couple of bloads, haiting from the town of Pierceton, this county, made themselves a little too conspicuous on our streets Sunday evening. We would advise the young gentleman, who wore a pair of sky-lights in front of his optics, to be careful, when sojourning in Warsaw, whom he approaches on the atrects, or we will be compelled to ventilate him and show him up to his employes at Pierceton. A word to the wise is sufficient.

Since the weather has cleared up, business has revived considerably, and Saturday was a very busy day for our merchants and grain buyers.
A new saloon called, "the Times," has just been opened on Lake street, in the third ward, with bowling alley connections.

Rob Burdette lectured in the Opera Bob Burdette lectured in the Opera House last Thursday evening, and instead of having a crowded house, as he rightfully deserved, a very sim audience greeted him on the occasion. If he had been properly advertised the opera-house would have been filled to overflowing, as he delivered the most interesting and humanus lecture that the same level is norous lecture that was ever heard in the town.

A very dizzy dance came off at the opera-house on last Wednesday evening. The inclemency of the weather, no doubt kept a good many of the trippers of the light fantastic from attending.

Another Version of the Case Mentioned in Testerday's "Sentinel." This afternoon Mayor Zollinger and Chief Smith went to the Home for the Friendless to investigate the case of the woman who, it was alleged, was turned away from the Home last week, as stated in last evening's SEN-TINEL.

The following letter from the matron explains itself: To the Editor of the SENTINEL:

Fort Wayne, Dec. 16, 1876.—Sir: You have certainly been misinformed regarding the woman sent here by Capt. Smith. I did all I could to make her comfortable that night and in the morning she said that she be-lieved she could travel and had much rather go to her friends than stay here. I intended to go to the trustee's office with her, but some persons came in on business that I was obliged to attend to and she would not wait until was at liberty to go with her. When I saw she was determined to go, I gave her money and showed her the street car that would take her to town. I went up as soon as I could, taste and we doubt whether another and Mr. Langard told me that she did not take the car as directed, but walked down as far as West Wayne street and sat down on the sidewalk, and could not be persuaded to go into the house. They notified him, and he took her to a house on Griffith street, where she remained until 2 o'clock, when he gave her a pass to Crestline. and sent a hack to take her to the depot.
